Any reply papers to the opposition must be filed by the moving party no later than five (5) court days prior to the designated hearing date (not counting the day of the hearing). These requirements do not apply to requests for orders shortening time or ex parte applications, and they do not affect the timing requirements of the summary judgment and adjudication statute, Code of Civil Procedure section 437c.
- c. If opposition papers are not timely filed, the Court, in its discretion, may deem it a waiver of any objections and treat it as an admission that the motion or other application is meritorious. A stipulation by the parties to shorten time is without effect.

Unless otherwise ordered, if a motion is filed pursuant to an order shortening time, all papers opposing the motion shall be served and filed by noon two (2) court days before the time appointed for the hearing. If the notice of the hearing has been shortened to two (2) days or less, papers opposing the motion may be presented in court on the day of the hearing. (Effective 7/01/98; amended 1/01/07 and 7/01/16)

The judicial officer will 1) grant the request and leave the matter on the law and motion calendar, 2) grant the request and direct that the matter be specially set with the calendar coordinator, or 3) deny the request and insist that the matter be heard in declarations. (Effective 7/01/98; amended 1/01/07)

3.06.0 Appearance at Hearing: If counsel or a pro per party does not appear at the hearing of a law and motion matter, the matter may be dropped from the calendar or ruled upon, and sanctions may be imposed at the discretion of the Court. (Effective 7/01/98; amended 1/01/01 and 7/01/16)

Affidavits and declarations must affirmatively show that the affiant or declarant is competent to testify to the statements made thereon. In general, the Court will use the same standards for assessing the quality and sufficiency of the evidence as would be applied in a contested proceeding.
- c. The Court will reject any claim for punitive damages, unless evidence is provided of the defaulting defendant's net worth, including liabilities. (Effective 7/01/98; amended 1/01/01, 1/1/16, and 7/01/16)

For apportionment of income and expenses, see Probate Code section 12002.
- g. Distribution to Intestate Heirs: The relationship of heirs who take by intestacy should be sufficiently described in the petition for distribution to permit the Court to determine whether the laws of intestate succession have been properly applied. If an heir takes by right of representation, the petition must indicate parentage and the approximate date of the parent's death.
- h. Distribution to Fiduciary: Where assets are to be distributed to a trustee, conservator, guardian, or other personal representative, an account shall be filed, unless waived. - n. Actions Under Independent Administration of Estates Act: If a personal representative has proceeded under the Independent Administration of Estates Act, the final report, whether or not accompanied by an accounting, shall contain a list of all independent acts performed and an allegation that all required notices of proposed action were duly served and that no objections were made.
- o. Allegation on Creditor's Claim: It is not sufficient simply to allege that all creditor's claims have been paid. Rather, the claims presented must be listed showing the claimant, the amount claimed, and the disposition of each claim. If any claim has been rejected, the date of service of notice of rejection of the claim shall be stated. The required allegation must appear in the final report, even though it may have appeared in whole or in part in prior reports.

- q. Waiver of Accounting on Final Distribution: The waiver makes a listing of the details of receipts and disbursements unnecessary. All other matters (e.g., the reporting of creditor's claims, sales and purchases, changes in the form of assets or other transactions) must be presented in the report.
- r. Closing Expenses: When closing expenses are requested, the petition and order must set forth the distribution of any unused portion thereof. (Effective 7/01/98; amended 1/01/01 and 7/01/16)

- d. The Court may deduct from the personal representative's statutory commissions any sums paid from estate funds for the performance of the representative's ordinary duties.
- e. Where an attorney is the personal representative and a member of a law firm, attorney's fees will not be allowed unless a declaration is executed and filed stating that the representative will not share in the attorney's fees to be received by the firm. (Effective 7/01/98; amended 1/01/01)

- b. Extraordinary services will not be considered unless the caption, prayer of the petition, and notice to distributees all contain a reference to the application for extraordinary compensation.
- c. Except as stated below for routine real property sales and federal estate tax work, applications for fees or commissions for extraordinary services shall include a detailed explanation of the extraordinary services. The explanation shall be separately stated in a declaration under penalty of perjury executed by the person rendering the services. Such application shall specify the amount requested for each item of service, not merely a "reasonable amount." Time sheets shall not be submitted.
- d. In determining the compensation of an attorney for extraordinary services rendered with respect to real property sales, the Court will consider the amount of time involved, whether or not a real estate broker was employed, the involvement of the attorney in negotiations, the nature of the other services rendered (e.g., drafting of the sales agreement and its complexity, preparation of deeds and other documents), and other similar information. The personal representative also may request compensation for extraordinary services in regard to sales of real property.
- e. Preparation of Federal Estate Tax Return: In determining the compensation of a personal representative or an attorney for the preparation of a federal estate tax return, the Court ordinarily will consider the hours spent, the intricacy or peculiar nature of any of the issues or computations involved, the extent of any audit, the value of the gross estate, the amount of the tax, and other similar information. (Effective 7/01/98; amended 1/01/01 and 7/01/16)
